DEMOCRATS OPPOSE BROWN'S APPOINTMENT

While on the surface everything is Brown, Dwight was himself in favor of Hustace, as well as of the appointment of Brown.

In the meantime the whole situation is much to be likened with a slumbering volcano. Big things are doing, and a fight is for the supremacy in January. Last night they foregathered to hold a caucus. Dwight, Hustace, Archer, Fern and Harvey were present. Owing to the absence of Keohau of Koahau and Andrew Cox of Waialua the caucus was postponed. It will be held tonight, following immediately after the regular session of the Board of Supervisors, if all the Supervisors-elect are present.

The Supervisors-elect are keeping very quiet about their caucus and none of them have much to say about the matter.

"Yes, we were to have had a caucus last night," said Hustace, when seen, "but we did not get a quorum, so the meeting was postponed. The purpose is merely to decide on a chairman and other matters. You; the appointment by Cathcart of Brown as assistant County Attorney will be among them."

Beyond this Hustace had nothing to say, and Frank Harvey was also uncommunicative. He corroborated what Hustace had said.

"The Supervisors cannot dictate to the County Attorney in the matter of his appointment," he said, blandly, when he was asked in what way the Supervisors intended to interfere.

Harvey admitted, however, that it might be that he had other cards up his sleeve, but said that it would be very unwise for him to show his hand at present.

Creditors

PARIS, France, Dec. 19.—Anna Gould, the recently divorced Countess Castellane, has won the suits brought against her by the creditors of her former husband.

Judge Robinson rendered a decision today in the replevin suit brought by Tarnouf against E. F. Farm to recover a cow. The court finds for the plaintiff and gives judgment against the defendant for the return of the cow or $900, her value.

Farm has, from prehistoric times, been a favorite game in the Eastern countries, the Persians, Turks and Tartars engaging in the pastime with great zest. In China and Japan there is a game closely resembling the Persian sport, but going by a different name.

Kalei Aona Will Sue
Hawaiian
Gazette For $10,000

SAYS THE KUAKOA LIBELED HIM

The vagaries of Mrs. Kalei Aona, drawing up the paper now. They will be filed very soon.

"This is what I base my suit on," said Aona, producing a copy of the Kuaako of Dec. 14. "They say in this paper that I was arrested and that my case is still pending. It was my wife who was arrested, and not me. I was not in Honolulu when all that happened."

Aona then proceeded to translate the offending article about as follows:

"RALEIGH AONA WAS ARRESTED."

"Some days ago Raleigh Aona was prosecuted by a male whose book store is situated in front of the Opera house, for having threatened to kill him, and the case is now pending in the court. On the Monday of the second week last past the male sued the woman for her insanity and that is why she is being confined."

"In detailing the history of this woman, she has come out from one of the good families of Hawaii and, in her young days she was sent to school by King Kalakaua in one of the girls schools at New York, where she was educated for four years, and from which she graduated with credit. She is possessed of a musical talent and is a fluent speaker."

"As it appears from this article the Kuaako made a mistake by confusing Raleigh Aona with his wife, using his name instead of hers. He is now seeking solace in the shape of $10,000."
